

Gaviota

Identity unknown. Apparently involved in a computer business in Santiago, Chile at the University of Chile with Townley.

Isolo

Identity unknown. An apparent DINA agent who had contact with Anital Lipthay, another DINA agent.

Roberto Smith or Roberto S.

Identity unknown. Appears to be connected with CHI and telephonically contacted Townley's sister in Westchester County, New York during 1979.

Honorato

Identity unknown. Possibly was a TV reporter.

DAS

Identity unknown. Possibly was a DINA agent.

Eugenio

A DINA agent who was a contact of ALFA.

Freddy

Identity unknown. Was a DINA agent who apparently was aware of details of bank accounts maintained in the U.S. by General Contreras.

Don Cristian

Identity unknown. Was the DINA control officer at DINA Headquarters who ran ALFA.

LIMA I

Identity unknown. Was a DINA agent who was aware of irregularities in the operation of DINA committed by General Contreras.

Claudio

Identity unknown. Was a DINA agent who was aware of irregularities in the operation of DINA committee by General Contreras.

Falcon

Identity unknown. Was a DINA agent who was aware of irregularities in the operation of DINA committee by General Contreras.

Elías

Identity unknown. May possibly have been a DINA agent. Apparently the investigation of Chilean Military Prosecutor Hector Orozco was damaging to his interests.

There are numerous other code names, code words and phrases in Townley's letters to which it was impossible to render any interpretation or meaning.